

Kivalliq Inuit Association
Department of Inuit Programs & Services

Women & Men's Council

Are you interested in assisting and planning social development in your communities?

Are you interested in assisting the Inuit programs & services department to preserve Inuit heritage, culture and language?

Want to enhance cultural identity and pride, individual capacity, language, and much more?

If you have answered yes to any of the questions above, please fill out an application form.

council will:

have telephone meetings

will meet once a year for a 'think tank' /strategic planning will be able to do community-based programs

also, help Inuit Programs & Services department determine programming for each community

LOOKING FOR:

2 women from every community
(one 35 and over,
another 55 and over)

2 men from every community
(one 35 and over,
another 55 and over)

DEADLINE:

December 03, 2021

Selected members will be contacted by December 17th 2021

For more information on the KIA's Women & Men's councils please contact:

Samantha Tugak-Brown Inuit Programs and Services Kivalliq Inuit association
Phone (867) 645-5746
Stugakbrown@kivalliqinuit.ca

Or stop by your local CLO office